

THE EVENING CRITIC.

Published Daily (Sundays Excepted)
BY THE
EVENING CRITIC PUBLISHING COMPANY
511 NINTH STREET, NORTHWEST,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

TERMS: 2 CENTS
SINGLE COPY, 10 CENTS
BY CARRIER, per Month, 30 CENTS
BY MAIL, (Postage Paid) One Year, $3.50
BY MAIL, (Postage Paid) Six Months, $2.00
Mail Subscriptions favorably in Advance.

Address
EVENING CRITIC PUBLISHING COMPANY,
Washington, D. C.

Entered at the Postoffice in Washington as second class matter.

Saturday, January 27, 1883.

Having indicted Dickson, we presume the Grand Jury will now move immediately upon Brewster (Cameron and Bowen).

Why does the House permit Mr. Mills' resolution concerning the Attorney-General's office to be so muddled in committee? Not to investigate the Attorney-General and his office and show up the wanton waste of money and abuse of power, will reflect little credit upon Congress. The time was when Cabinet officers would have been presented for impeachment for doing the twentieth part of the things done by Attorney-General.

The House yesterday gave itself up to a discussion of the tariff bill, and the event of the day was the speech of Mr. Tucker. The "viciously unjust" legislation of the bill was mercilessly dissected and exposed, and in a general way the fallacies of the protective theories concerning the price of labor and benefits to laboring men. Mr. Mills came into the discussion fully equipped, and dealt some hard blows. His assertion that there was no difference between the principle of the bill and communism—that that meant the taking away of the property of one citizen in order to bestow it upon another—was a terse way of putting the whole question. Mr. Kasson indulged in a few old and worn platitudes about preserving the country from foreign control and protecting the workmen—arguments that come under the general head of "hog."

The vile and venal New York Times holds its report of the star-route trial, yesterday "Proving Dorsey's Guilt." Now, if the necessary scribbles for that vile and venal paper have sense enough to know what constitutes "proof," they know that head-line is a deliberate lie. But the penny-aliners of the aforesaid vile and venal have become so accustomed to lying, presumably upon order, that this lie is not singular, and scarcely worthy of notice. By the way, the animus of the Times against Dorsey is the fact that Dorsey in 1880 did not think it worth while to circulate the disreputable sheet at the expense of the treasury of the Republican National Committee.

The viler and more venal New York Herald, whose owner ought to be kicked down anybody's stairs, goes off at a furious rate about Boone's testimony in the Star-Route case before it knows what that testimony really is. When Mr. Boone gets through it will be time enough for it to make its mercurial comments. In the meantime its ad-lib-pated editors, telegraphic and otherwise, would do well to keep near shore.

Religious News.

Philadelphia has ninety-three Presbyterian churches.
Bishop Littlejohn, of Long Island, is at Nice, looking after the affairs of the American Protestant Episcopal Church there.
Rev. J. M. Rawlings, of Lynchburg, Va., has received a call to the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Va.
Spring Garden-street Presbyterian Church (Philadelphia) has called a Turk to be its pastor. His name is Rev. Mangasar M. Mangasarin. He was educated in this country.

The Baltimore Observer is to be congratulated for having secured Rev. James M. Maxwell as its editor. The paper will be published by "The Presbyterian Observer Company."
Mr. James B. Mayers, business manager of the Episcopal Recorder and Commercial Appeal, of Philadelphia, died suddenly on last Wednesday. His death will be a great loss to that able and well-conducted weekly journal.

The news comes to hand almost every day of the great work of Messrs. Moody and Sankey in England, and especially in Oxford. The highest and most distinguished dignitaries of the Episcopal Church there were the warmest supporters of the American evangelists.

The next General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church of the United States and Canada will be held at May in Baltimore, at Cummins Memorial Church, of which Rev. Bishop Latane is rector. Over a hundred clergymen are expected to be present, and there is much interest anticipated.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Claxton, a clergyman of the Episcopal Church, died at his residence in Lancaster, Pa., Thursday. Dr. Claxton was born in Philadelphia on March 11, 1830, was educated at the theological seminary in Alexandria, Va., and obtained his degree of doctor of divinity from William and Mary College.

The War Cry, the official newspaper of the Salvation Army in England, has reached a circulation of 350,000, and their newspaper in India, not four months old, has a circulation of 30,000. The work in India has taken the heart and soul of the natives, many of whom are already excited and preaching, and singing with all the enthusiasm possible.

The New York Observer, of January 4, gives a statistical table of the various denominations in the United States. It gives the number of church organizations, ministers (local preachers not included), and communicants or members. The Methodist Protestant Church credited 1,301 organizations, 1,377 ministers, 93 local preachers, and 121,717 members. The Protestant denominations have 110,071 organizations, 79,271 ministers, and 10,238,425 members. The Roman Catholic Church reported last year 5,564 churches, 5,741 priests (bishops included), and 6,377,350 population. The table is prepared with evident care, and no doubt is as nearly correct as it can be made.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

BOONE'S CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Another Scene in the Star-Route Case.

After The Critic went to press yesterday the trial of the Star-Route case continued, Colonel Ingersoll conducting the cross-examination of A. E. Boone, who testified that he prepared the circulars and proposals, and neither was done with the intention of defrauding the Government. The hearing of circulars was for the purpose of obtaining information of the revenue officers which the mail was carried. The blanks were printed and kept secret as to who let other bidders know what they were doing. The witness did not send out any of the proposals with the name of the bidder in blank for the purpose of defrauding the Government.

"Well, leave that now and come to Dorsey," he said and said, "said the Judge. 'Somehow or other when the evidence goes my way the time is short,' replied Colonel Ingersoll.

"Well, go on," answered the Judge. "I shall not allow that," said the Judge. "I gave you notice the other day that that kind of slang in a court of justice is out of place."

"I don't think it is slang," replied Colonel Ingersoll.

"Well, it is regarded as slang here," answered His Honor.

"I think I behave myself as well as any man in this courtroom," said Colonel Ingersoll.

"Well, maybe you do, but we can dispense with any remarks of that kind," said the Judge.

"It was merely a remark of temporary approval," answered Colonel Ingersoll.

"The Court will be glad to dispense with approval of that kind," said Judge Wylie. "I will not do it again if I can think of it," said Colonel Ingersoll, and continued with his examination.

The witness said that Senator Dorsey never did tell him, in printing forms or circulars or filling them up and sending them out, to so arrange them that an attorney could take them out of the Government.

Senator Dorsey told the witness that he advanced the money for Miner and John W. Dorsey. He never told the witness that he had a personal interest in the route.

Without finishing the cross-examination the trial was adjourned until Monday next.

A Social Gathering.

The friends of Miss Maudie Egan spent a very pleasant evening at her residence in Annapolis last evening. The affair was quiet, select and enjoyable throughout. Music, both vocal and instrumental, readings, recitations, games, refreshments, &c., filled up the programme. Miss Maudie Egan, Miss Fletcher, and Mr. R. W. Isdell rendered some very fine music at the piano, and the company were charmed with the sweet voice of their little hostess, while the readings and recitations of Mr. Charles James and Mr. George Buckler were received with great commendation. Among those present were: Miss Jennie Barker, Miss Blanche Fletcher, the Misses Minnie, Miss Jessie Egan, Miss Adelle Isdell, Miss Maudie Egan, Mr. William Minnie, Mr. Richard Pyle, Mr. Charles James, Mr. R. W. Isdell, Mr. John Barker, Mr. Edward Hinwood and Mr. George Buckler.

roving His Unfitness.

Washington Post, today.
Are any more evidences needed to establish Judge Wylie's unfitness for the position he holds than those contributed by him, unsolicited, on Thursday?

For Imported or Western Sauvages of all kinds Chr. Xander has the finest stock in the market. Call and examine at 908 Seventh street.

A Chance for Bargains!

HEILBRUN'S

SEMI-ANNUAL

CLEARING SALE

OF

Fine Boots and Shoes

Has Commenced and will continue for the NEXT THIRTY DAYS.

Ladies' Wool-Lined Shoes.....75 Cents

Ladies' All-Leather Shoes.....80 "

Boys' and Misses' Shoes.....50 "

Men's Calf Shoes.....$4.00

L. HEILBRUN, 402 Seventh St.,

Sign—THE OLD WOMAN IN WINDOW.

The Public is requested to notice the new and enlarged catalogue to be drawn Monthly.

CAPITAL PRIZE, $75,000.

Tickets only 25 Cents in proportion

L. S. L.

Louisiana State Lottery Company

"We do hereby certify that we supervise the arrangements for all the Monthly and Semi-Annual Drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, and in person manage and control the Drawings themselves, and that the same are conducted with honesty, fairness, and in good faith toward the public, and we authorize the Company to use this certificate, with fac-similes of our signatures attached, in its advertisements."

Rev. Dr. J. W. Claxton, a clergyman of the Episcopal Church, died at his residence in Lancaster, Pa., Thursday. Dr. Claxton was born in Philadelphia on March 11, 1830, was educated at the theological seminary in Alexandria, Va., and obtained his degree of doctor of divinity from William and Mary College.

The War Cry, the official newspaper of the Salvation Army in England, has reached a circulation of 350,000, and their newspaper in India, not four months old, has a circulation of 30,000. The work in India has taken the heart and soul of the natives, many of whom are already excited and preaching, and singing with all the enthusiasm possible.

The New York Observer, of January 4, gives a statistical table of the various denominations in the United States. It gives the number of church organizations, ministers (local preachers not included), and communicants or members. The Methodist Protestant Church credited 1,301 organizations, 1,377 ministers, 93 local preachers, and 121,717 members. The Protestant denominations have 110,071 organizations, 79,271 ministers, and 10,238,425 members. The Roman Catholic Church reported last year 5,564 churches, 5,741 priests (bishops included), and 6,377,350 population. The table is prepared with evident care, and no doubt is as nearly correct as it can be made.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

The friends of the Rev. Wm. C. Webb here and in Alexandria will be glad to know that he is meeting with remarkable success in his present charge, Grace M. E. Church, Philadelphia. A revival has been in progress since the last day of December, and during that time about a hundred have professed religion, and of these sixty have united with the church, many of whom being men of influence and wealth. The work still continues, and the congregations are very large all the time. Mr. Webb has formerly been pastor of the M. E. Church, Alexandria, Va., and while there married one of its refined and beautiful young ladies. The Rev. Thomas L. Poulton, Mr. Webb's successor in Alexandria, was assisting for a week, and rendered valuable service. Mr. Webb succeeded the Rev. Thomas Guard for a short time at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, in 1875, when the lamented orthodox first went to California. They had previously been missionaries in South Africa.

LADIES' Cotton Underwear

AND Hamburg Embroideries.

JUST OPENED, a new line of Ladies' Cotton Underwear, which will be sold at a very small advance on manufacturers' prices. Only first-class, well made, reliable goods sold at.

DAVIS.

HAVING placed a large order for Hamburg Edges and Lace-trimmed Undershirts, which will be sold at a very small advance on manufacturers' prices. The assortment is complete, and goods perfect in make and finish. Exam-ine goods and prices before the stock is broken.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.

DAVIS.